

A portrait of a smiling woman with long, dark, wavy hair. She is wearing a gold, off-the-shoulder, long-sleeved dress with puffed sleeves and a black feathered necklace with silver jewelry. She is standing in front of a dark, ornate door. The text 'MEDIA KIT' is in the top right corner.

MEDIA KIT

Melanie Jones Quarles, Ph.D.

WOMANIST.MILLENNIAL.INTELLECTUAL

WWW.REVMELANIE.COM

BIO

The Reverend Melanie Jones Quarles, Ph.D., is a womanist ethicist, millennial preacher, and intellectual activist. Melanie is an Assistant Professor of Ethics, Theology, and Culture and the Inaugural Director of the Katie Geneva Cannon Center for Womanist Leadership at Union Presbyterian Seminary. Formerly, Melanie served as the first Crump Visiting Professor and Black Religious Scholar-in-Residence at Seminary of the Southwest in Austin, TX, and Lecturer at Brite Divinity School in Fort Worth, TX, American Baptist College in Nashville, TN, Chicago Theological Seminary, and The Illinois Institute of Technology in Chicago, IL.

Melanie is a thinking woman of faith embodying radical love and revolutionary justice in the academy, Church, and global community. Melanie earned a B.A. in Economics and Political Science from Howard University, a Master of Divinity with a certificate in Black Church Studies from Vanderbilt University Divinity School, and a Doctor of Philosophy degree in ethics, theology, and culture with a concentration in Black Faith and Life at Chicago Theological Seminary. Melanie's research engages womanist theological ethics and sacred texts, millennials and faith, Black aesthetics, and digital technocultures. Melanie has received notable fellowships and scholarships for her distinguished research, including The Forum for Theological Exploration, The Louisville Institute, Wabash Center, Villanova University Center for Church Management, and The Henry Luce Foundation.

Her most recent article, "The House That Cannon Built and 'The Hinges Upon Which the Future Swings'" is published in Walking through the Valley: Womanist Explorations in the Spirit of Katie Geneva Cannon, edited by Emilie Maureen Townes, Stacey M Floyd-Thomas, Alison P. Gise-Johnson, and Angela D. Sims (Westminster John Knox Press, 2022). Melanie's writings are featured in popular digital and print publications, including The Feminist Wire, Chicago Theological Seminary Challenge & Response Magazine, The Forum for Theological Exploration Blog, Alpha Kappa Alpha Ivy Leaf Magazine, Sunday School Publishing Board — National Baptist Convention, USA, Syndicate, and Urban Ministries, Incorporated.

Committed to enlivening a world where Black women and girls are whole and free, Melanie serves professional societies and international boards as a global leader in Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated (former International Second Vice President 2008 – 2010), Black Religious Scholars Group, and Daughters of the African Atlantic Fund. Melanie is the Co-Founder of The Millennial Womanism Project (TMWP) and Co-host of The Womanist Salon (TWS) podcast— an intergenerational, woke, womanist podcast that integrates the hair salon as site, source, and sanctuary for authentic Black sisterhood.

Melanie is the youngest ordained woman minister at South Suburban Missionary Baptist Church, under the pastoral leadership of her beloved mother, Rev. Dr. Annette Jones. Melanie is newly married to The Reverend DeQuon A. Quarles, M.Div. A third-generation ordained Baptist preacher and sought-after lecturer, Melanie is a leading millennial voice with noted academic and popular publications as well as features on television, radio, and news outlets. Follow Melanie at www.revmelanie.com and @revmelaniej on social media.

BOOK HER

Are you ready to begin the journey?
Do you seek to co-create with Melanie?
Let's Collaborate for changemaking!!!

CONTACT

SCHEDULE A MEETING

calendly.com/revmelaniej

live@revmelanie.com

linktr.ee/revmelaniej

PREACHING

Public & Virtual Sermons

LECTURING

Ethics, Theology, Womanism,
Sacred Texts, Millennials & Faith,
Black Aesthetics & Popular Culture

WRITING

Academic Writings, Blogging, &
Public Features

CONSULTING

Creative Design, Content Curation,
Leadership Development, Event
Management, Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion

A Thinking Woman of Faith embodying Radical Love and Revolutionary Justice in the Church, Classroom and Global Community!

Rev
MELANIE

Stay CONNECTED

@revmelaniej

@phdbound

@revmelaniej

@revmelaniej

$phdbound

www.revmelanie.com